

REQUIREMENTS TO BECOME AN IGA TUTOR

Welcome to the exciting opportunity to become a registered IGA Tutor and play a pivotal role in shaping the future of gymnastics education. As a renowned organisation committed to fostering excellence in coaching, the Independent Gymnastics Association (IGA) is thrilled to invite passionate individuals to join our team of dedicated tutors.

---

IGA requirements that are necessary for becoming an IGA Tutor.

- Applicant must have a valid IGA Membership.
  - Applicant must be a minimum of Level 3 in the desired discipline they wish to teach.
  - Must be eligible to work as self-employed.
  - Must be able to travel.
  - Availability to run courses on the weekend and for other venues.

If you would like to become an IGA Tutor, we do require the following:

- Apply in writing to IGA with a copy of your CV to be passed onto the Executive Committee.
  - The EC will have a discussion to ensure they agree that the coach will be suitable to represent IGA as a Tutor.
  - If the applicant is accepted onto the Tutor programme the applicant would be required to attend three courses including one that would have to be run under the supervision of the senior tutor.
  - Once all three courses have been completed the senior tutor will report back to the EC, who will make their final decision.
  - If successfully accepted as an IGA Tutor, applicants will be added to our list of existing tutors and will be contacted about tutoring courses and dates for availability.

If you are enthusiastic about becoming an IGA Tutor, the application process is designed to identify individuals with a passion for education and a deep understanding of gymnastics principles.

IGA is committed to upholding a superior standard of tutors to ensure the delivery of coaching courses that are both educational and enjoyable. Maintaining this elevated standard is of utmost importance to us. IGA retains the right to remove any tutors from our program who do not meet this criterion, as it is crucial for sustaining the excellence and quality of our educational offerings.
